Design Ventura 2022-23

Project Aims

To provide a curriculum relevant project in a real world context

To give students the opportunity to respond to a live brief set by a leading designer

To increase the skills, confidence and ambition of young people

To build partnerships between students, the design industry and the museum

Design Ventura is a national and international competition

Now in its thirteenth year

Design Ventura has supported more than 108,00 students since its inception in 2010

Quickly becoming a benchmark of design talent in schools

11 student products have been made and sold in the Design Museum Shop raising more than £15,000 for charity since 2010

Support for Running the Programme

What we offer

Online CPD for teachers - To extend their design practice. This can count towards credits for formal accreditation via the via Goldsmith's Design Education MA.

Experts - Schools are supported by a community of business and design expert volunteers.

Visits and workshop - State schools can come to the museum and participate in workshops (offered September – December on a first come first served basis).

Website - Free online resources so that teachers can run the project at their own pace.

Webinars - Free online learning opportunities with leading designers for teachers and students.

Design Museum Shop Products - We provide a small sample of objects from the museum's shop to help inform ideas to all teachers that attend a CPD session.
